WAR RUMORS

Thick In Great European Struggle

Germans Fall Back When Threatened By Flanking Movement

LATEST WAR BULLETINS

London, Sept. 11.—The attitude of Turkey, which has been a subject of paramount anxiety to the foreign offices of Europe seems to have been decided for here if the story is true that Roumania, Greece and Bulgaria have agreed to prevent Ottoman intervention on behalf of Germany and Austria. The allies have been working strenuously to this end.

Reports Balkan Alliance.

London, Sept. 11.—Telegraphing from Rome, a correspondent of the Daily Telegraph declares he has learned from diplomatic sources that Roumania, Greece and Bulgaria have signed an agreement which may be regarded as a real alliance, under the terms of which these three nations engage to interfere whenever necessary in order to prevent Turkey's aiding Germany and Austria in the present war. If Turkey remains neutral, however, these three States will do the same. It is reported in Rome, the correspondent continues, that Berlin has become resigned to the idea of Italian neutrality, but she is determined that Italy shall at least remain neutral until the end.

Servians Take Semlin.

Nish, Servia, Sept. 10.—The Servians occupied Semlin, across the river from Belgrade, this morning, after a bloody battle.

London, Sept. 11.—The battle of the Marne, as the French have christened the great struggle which now has been in progress for a week in the territory between Paris and Verdun, with the allied armies of France and England on one side and the Germans on the other, has not yet reached a decisive result.

The German right, however, in the face of the superior forces and threatened with an outflanking movement, continues to retire to the north along the route over which General Von Kluck made his famous advance on Paris from the Belgian border after having defeated the allies at Mons and again at Cambrai and St. Quentin. With General Foch's army, which supported his left, is falling back towards the river Aisne and Oise.

SUPPERS BROKEN ARM.

Master Dobyns Calhoun, little son of Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Calhoun, while playing on the porch at Mrs. D. H. Fee's home yesterday afternoon, fell from the porch to the ground and broke one of the bones in his right forearm. Dr. Taylor set the bone and took an X-Ray picture which showed that one bone was broken and the other bent considerably.

The little sufferer bore the pain manfully.

Germany and Russia Have Declared War on King Alcohol

Although the great German and Russian empires are pitted against one another in the most sanguinary struggle of history they stand together against a foe who mercilessly wages war on all mankind irrespective of nationality, a foe that shows no quarter even to women and children, who yearly leaves a trail of human wreckage more pitiable even than the blood-soaked battle fields of the Franco-Belgian frontier.

So recently as February 12, 1914, the Czar, after a tour of his vast dominions, reported to his Minister of Finance that the appalling prevalence of family poverty and disrupted households was the inevitable consequence of insobriety. He saw that for the good of the people it was necessary to raise government revenues by means other than by liquor taxes and licenses. He directed that the financial policy of the imperial government be changed, saying in his edict:

"WE CANNOT MAKE OUR FISCAL PROSPERITY DEPENDANT UPON THE DESTRUCTION OF THE SPIRITUAL AND ECONOMIC POWERS OF MY SUBJECTS."

Since the Kaiser's accession twenty-five years ago, all his indomitable will and tireless energy have been expended towards the realization of German pre-eminence commercially and industrially. Not only did he consider the economic efficiency of his subjects, but in the event of such a gigantic struggle as Germany is now engaged in, he foresaw that the chances of victory depended largely upon the physical fitness of the men who composed his mighty fighting machine. That the Kaiser realized that the effectiveness of his military and naval forces was impaired by alcoholic indulgence is evidenced by his address to the naval cadets at Murwik in which he said: "During my reign nine-tenths of the great number of crimes which have been appealed to me for decision were due to alcohol. The next war will demand sound nerves on your part, but these are undermined from youth upward by indulgence in alcohol. In this next war VICTORY WILL LIE WITH THE NATION THAT USES THE SMALLEST AMOUNT OF ALCOHOL."

The brewing interests are among the greatest of Germany, yet no thought of monetary loss weighed with the Kaiser in taking his stand against the harmful effects of their product. DOES NOT YOUR PATRIOTISM MEASURE TO THAT STANDARD, MR. VOTER?

The rulers of these two vast nations realize that NO LASTING PROSPERITY CAN BE BUILT UPON THE IMPAIRED EFFICIENCY OF THE PRODUCER. LET MASON COUNTY PROFIT BY THEIR OBSERVATIONS AND VOTE OUT AN EVIL THAT IS SAPPING THE STRENGTH OF HER MANHOOD.

A MOST PLEASING AND POPULAR PLAY.

"Potash and Perlmutter," "An Up-to-Date Garment in Three Pieces," was given last night at Washington Theater to a fair-sized audience. This farce-comedy is a veritable laugh-producer, and if such plays can be high-class the firm of "Potash and Perlmutter" delivered the goods. The theater-going public like to laugh as they see too much gloom in the movies, and last night's production would have extracted a prolonged, merry ha! ha! from the longest-faced yokel in the land. There were 19 people in the cast, and the three acts brought out the human side of all the tricks in trade that go to make up social and mercantile life in a big city.

The American characterization of the Hebrew is always over-drawn and highly colored and last evening it was done to a turn.
